

Senior Analyst Consultancy Team

London

We are looking for a Senior Analyst to join our Consultancy team to support the delivery of our consultancy product range and client advisory services. Working on projects for some of the world's biggest brands you'll combine your human expertise with our machine intelligence and data to provide answers for our clients' future success.

Foresight Factory is a consumer prediction consultancy which cuts to the chase. Powered by our platform 'Collision' we provide uniquely specific answers to future customer questions. What we do is Very Deep, Very Smart and Very Commercial.

Home to a diverse team of unique talents our people are confident, embrace responsibility, and enjoy working collaboratively to understand what's important to our clients and always digging deeper to uncover new insights.

This role would be perfect for a passionate futurist with a curiosity for consumer behaviour and the future consumer.

The sort of things you'll be doing

- You'll learn all about our consultancy product suite and become confident in delivering smaller projects independently.
- You'll support the senior Consultancy team with the delivery of large-scale projects across our global network of clients.
- You'll work with quantitative and qualitative analysis (forecasts, segmentations, social media analysis, and trendspotters) to provide compelling evidence of trends to our clients.
- You'll always be thinking of ways to optimise your delivery of engaging insights to our clients, contributing to best practice across the team.
- You'll continuously absorb the world around you, learning how cultures and societies are changing, and how brands must evolve to meet consumer needs.
- You'll follow a clearly defined path of progression to eventually lead the development and delivery of large-scale projects yourself.

Why we should hire you.

- You have 1-2 years' experience in a consumer trends and insight environment.
- You have strong people and project management skills.
- You are self-driven, self-sufficient, structured, and organized.
- You are a confident communicator with great verbal and written English skills.
- You can provide high quality analysis and knowledge across different sectors.
- You are highly IT literate with amazing internet research skills.
- You have achieved a relevant degree or equivalent work experience.

What you'll get in return

- Competitive salary commensurate with experience
- Performance related bonus
- Workplace pension with 3% company contribution
- 2 x base salary life insurance
- 28 days' holiday plus public holidays.
- Ability to swap existing public holidays for celebrations or holidays of other religions.
- Continuous professional development linked to company objectives and personal goals.
- Flexible work patterns and hybrid working
- Ability to work from anywhere in the world – 2 weeks per annum.
- Family friendly and compassionate leave policies
- Great design-led (dog friendly) office space in the heart of Shoreditch (theofficegroup.com)
- Free membership to on-site gym through Manor London (mymanor.london)
- Season ticket loans, cycle to work and personal tech schemes
- Wellbeing support programme
- End of quarter company celebrations and frequent team outings.
