

Trendspotters

Global

We are looking for people to join our global network of trendspotters to provide insights into the world around them for client projects across a variety of sectors such as luxury, travel, automotive, financial, healthcare, retail, and energy.

Foresight Factory is a consumer prediction consultancy which cuts to the chase. Powered by our platform 'Collision' we provide uniquely specific answers to future customer questions. What we do is Very Deep, Very Smart and Very Commercial.

Home to a diverse team of unique talents, our people are confident, embrace responsibility, and enjoy working collaboratively to understand what's important to our clients and always digging deeper to uncover new insights.

To join our network, you will need to have excellent verbal and written English skills, be highly organized, and able to commit to delivering detailed insights to a deadline.

Joining our network

If you would like to join our global network of trendspotters you will be asked to complete a short profile form which will ask a few personal details, location, and interests. We will keep all information supplied to us safe and confidential, in full accordance with UK GDPR, and only use it to match you to the right project. You can ask us to delete your information at any time.

Taking part

Each client brief is different, and we always try to match participants who are enthusiastic and have a genuine interest in project theme, therefore participation is occasional and not guaranteed. You will be contacted to ensure you are keen to take part in a project before selection.

In return

You will be paid for your time and expenses incurred. Each project will have a different budget so you will be advised prior to selection of the total payment value for your participation.
